

CS/CS/CS/SB 392 - Transparency in Local Government Contracts continues to move well through the Senate in spite of heavy objection on behalf of local governments. The bill passed the Senate Transportation and Economic Development Appropriations Committee and is expected to be heard on the Senate Special Order Calendar on April 16th. The House companion bill, HB 181, is still sitting in the Government Efficiency and Accountability Council where it has been since early January.