Season's Greetings to one and all! FAPPO is working hard to make sure you have an opportunity to attend our 42nd Annual Conference at the Orlando Peabody in April 2009. The theme this year is: "Procurement Strategies to Overcome Deficiencies" and Marian Pace, our VP and Conference Chair is planning many sessions that will give you new ideas and potential opportunities for improvements which may help save your entity dollars in the coming year. The staff of the Florida Attorney General will be presenting a class on antitrust and possibly some other classes as well. The conference agenda should be out in late January, so please check the website as we are always updating the information there.

The FAPPO "Bucks" program is underway and you can read further in this issue exactly how you attend the conference at a reduced or free rate, and also see who has already earned "bucks" to use for the Conference, the Peabody hotel or for a FAPPO sponsored class. Linda Smith and team (Trade Show Committee) are also working hard to fill up the Orange County Convention Center space for our April 8th Trade Show. This year we implemented a new essay contest and a call for presentations for the conference which is another way that you can earn your way to the conference. All of the forms and applications are available on the website.

This had been a tough year for all of us and the year ahead is looking pretty tough too. Utilize your FAPPO network to piggy back each others bids, assist each other with bid documents and information and post your jobs on the FAPPO website so that those who might be facing layoffs have another source for their job searches. With each other's support we'll get through these economic bad times and also be a great source of information for our entities.

Wishing You and Your Families a Healthy, Happy and Safe Holiday Season!

Denise

UPPCC Committee Update

The first computerized test using the new body of knowledge for Certified Professional Buyer (CPPB) and Certified Public Purchasing Officer (CPPO) examinations were administered in October. As this is a new testing process, the Board of Examiners will closely monitor the test questions, answers and comments during the next two years and will make the appropriate changes to the testing material as needed. The October test results should be available in the next few weeks.

Remember to allow ample time for review and approval of the Certification Application process. Submission of applications and exam registration deadlines are provided below.

Contact hours: 24 hours

UPPCC* Re-Certification points: 3

CEU Units: 2.25

General Description:

Designed to be an educational exploration of the Legal Aspects of Public Procurement, this course will provide a foundation of the principles and general concepts of the law as it applies to public procurement. Course content will address issues such as the UCC, the Model Procurement Code, Sale of Goods Act and the legal implications surrounding solicitations, contracting and post award issues. Attention will be given to the ethical issues facing the profession relevant to the law. Taught by procurement professional, not an attorney, this course will focus on actual procurement situations with actual procurement implications.

Intended Audience:

This fundamental approach to procurement law will be of interest to those who are substantially involved in the public procurement contracting process. Individuals who want to increase their understanding of both the capability and limitation of the law on government procedures will be responsive to the course content. In addition, this course will be beneficial to all those who work alongside those in the public sector and must operate under the guidelines of procurement law for the successful acquisition of products and services. Please note that this course is intended to address US legal issues and may not meet the needs of those working outside the United States. The UPPCC certification exams do not contain questions about country-specific laws.

Prerequisites:

Though no prerequisites are stipulated for this class, successful participants should have completed the NIGP Introduction to Public Procurement class, or have some public procurement introduction to the field prior to enrolling.

CEU Units: 2.25

General Description:

This course provides the participant with a comprehensive overview of the sourcing process within the public sector. Essential elements, including pre-sourcing planning, needs assessment, specifications, scope of work, deliverables, procurement strategies, value analysis, and internal control processes are explored. Determining the appropriate sourcing method, preparing the relevant sourcing invitation document, managing the acquisition process, evaluation of response submissions, and contract awards will also be explored. In addition, trends and technology developments and their effect of processes will be discussed

Intended Audience:

Sourcing, by government organizations is a different and complex process, filled with rules, regulations, procedures, court decisions, conflict of interest prohibitions, and issues that can complicate and confound the lives of government officials charged with procurement responsibilities. This course is intended for those who want to learn how to navigate the process and increase their understanding of the critical issues that frame the concept of public sector sourcing and discusses future sourcing challenges. Procurement practitioners at all levels aspiring to public procurement professional certification, senior agency managers, suppliers, and internal customers who wish to understand their role in the public sector acquisition process are encouraged to attend.

Prerequisites:

Though no prerequisites are stipulated for this class, successful participants should have one to two years of public procurement experience prior to enrolling. Others may find completion of the NIGP Introduction to Public Procurement class, and the NIGP Planning, Scheduling and Requirements Analysis class to be of benefit.

Times: 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Daily

Contact hours: 24 hours
UPPCC* Re-Certification points: 3
CEU Units: 2.25

General Description:

This course is uniquely designed to prepare procurement professionals to use the RFP process to its maximum potential. The class agenda will identify the process, offer a key understanding of the elements of the proposal and ascertain ways in which the document can be used to its full capability. Pitfalls and success stories will make the class relevant and applicable when planning to incorporate this type of solicitation into the government process.

Intended Audience:

Designed for procurement professionals that are entrenched in the competitive process this in-depth study of RFPs, from development through evaluation, will be enlightening. Major topics to be covered include managing the process, evaluating submissions, negotiations and an overview of the subsequent contract. Those interested in gaining a thorough understanding of the process and its implications for successful public procurement should be encouraged to attend. Team leaders, committee members, contract administrators and procurement managers and any other procurement professional interested in achieving “best value” during this acquisition process should register.

Prerequisites:

There are no prerequisites for this class. Successful participants will either be new to the profession or have less than one year of experience and anyone employed in various positions within the government.

CEU Units: 2.25

General Description:

This course will cover strategic planning within an organization and the importance of its relationship to procurement planning. Planning models will be discussed as will public sector budgeting. Developing key partnerships within the organization in requirements determination will be explored, as this will lead to the development of proper specifications. Pricing strategies employed in the public sector such as cost analysis and life cycle costing will also be covered.

Intended Audience:

This introduction to the strategic planning/procurement planning process will be valuable to all public procurement professionals who are interested in developing strategic working relationships with end users in their organizations. This course will be beneficial to every public procurement professional attempting to advance in the field and develop their knowledge, skills and abilities relative to procurement's strategic position within an organization. In light of the broad nature of the text, many of the concepts may be of special interest to the practicing public administrator and public procurement professionals.

Prerequisites:

Though no prerequisites are stipulated for this class, successful participants should have at least one year of public procurement experience prior to enrollment. Those without applicable experience may find this class more beneficial after having taken the NIGP Introduction to Public Purchasing.

General Description:

The class provides a framework for examining contract administration by focusing on essential elements of the discipline. It also provides the participant with a focused look at key considerations related to important contract terms and conditions that must be enforced during contract administration. The intent is for the student to develop a strong understanding of the complexities of contract administration and recognize the importance of planning, monitoring, and proactive insight into and oversight of contract performance. This class provides a comprehensive overview of the contract administration process within the public sector along with illustrations of the various methods available. Determining the appropriate contract administration method, preparing a relevant plan, participating in the process, evaluating the success of the contract and evaluation procedures will all be addressed.

Intended Audience:

This class is designed for contract managers at every level; contract managers with significant experience will find the material to be useful, as it examines contract administration in the context of 21st century contract challenges. Material addresses contracting from a global perspective, i.e. unique statutes and/or regulations may be mentioned; however the material transcends state or national level interest by offering a look at the process and best practices that have application regardless of unique laws and regulations that may govern.

Prerequisites:

Though no prerequisites are stipulated for this class, successful participants should have one to two years of public procurement experience prior to enrolling. Others may find completion of the NIGP Introduction to Public Procurement class, and the NIGP Planning, Scheduling and Requirements Analysis class to be of benefit.

Determining the appropriate contract administration method, preparing a relevant plan, participating in the process, evaluating the success of the contract and evaluation procedures will all be addressed.

Intended Audience:

This class is designed for contract managers at every level; contract managers with significant experience will find the material to be useful, as it examines contract administration in the context of 21st century contract challenges. Material addresses contracting from a global perspective, i.e. unique statutes and/or regulations may be mentioned; however the material transcends state or national level interest by offering a look at the process and best practices that have application regardless of unique laws and regulations that may govern.

Prerequisites:

Though no prerequisites are stipulated for this class, successful participants should have one to two years of public procurement experience prior to enrolling. Others may find completion of the NIGP Introduction to Public Procurement class, and the NIGP Planning, Scheduling and Requirements Analysis class to be of benefit.

General Description:

The work of public procurement is no longer a clerical function performed independently by various people throughout different agencies or departments within a government entity. This class provides an overview of the ever-changing profession by identifying fundamental concepts that will affect procurement in the public sector.

Intended Audience:

This course is intended for individuals interested in an overview of procurement functions for the purpose of understanding the basic elements that underlie all areas of public procurement. Any government employee who has delegated authority to purchase goods and services on behalf of the government should take advantage of this class. Discussion and content is relevant for those outside the profession, who are impacted by the public procurement environment.

Prerequisites:

There are no prerequisites for this class. Successful participants will either be new to the profession or have less than one year of experience and anyone employed in various positions within the government.

EARN YOUR WAY TO FAPPO EVENTS

Starting on July 15, 2008, FAPPO members can “earn” their way to a FAPPO sponsored event. This includes the FAPPO Conference and Trade Show in April 2009, as well as any FAPPO sponsored class!! This is how it works:

1. Send an email to the Executive Director to sign up a new member or agency. Include the agency or member name, email and phone number. The Executive Director will contact that agency or member and you will receive TWENTY FAPPO Bucks for each new member that joins and pays dues. Agency or member must be new to FAPPO and can not have belonged within the past two years. Maximum amount to be earned is $300.00. (You cannot sign up anyone from your own agency, but we certainly encourage all of you to belong).
2. Send an email to the Executive Director to sign up a Vendor for the 2009 Conference and Trade Show to be held on April 8, 2009 at the Orange County Convention Center. Include the Vendor name, contact name, telephone number, mailing address, fax number and email address. The Executive Director will Contact the Vendor and if the Vendor signs up and pays to participate in the 2009 Trade Show, you will receive ONE HUNDRED FAPPO Bucks. (Vendor cannot have participated in a FAPPO Trade Show within the past two years). Maximum amount that can be earned is $300.00 and you can use your FAPPO Bucks for a FAPPO sponsored event, or, you can trade in your Bucks for Ducks, and use towards your stay at the Peabody Hotel for the 2009 Conference and Trade Show.
3. Serve as a Committee Chairperson-FIFTY FAPPO Bucks, serve on the Committee-TWENTY-FIVE FAPPO Bucks.

To be eligible you must have paid your dues for 2008/2009 by the posted deadline. FAPPO Bucks are not redeemable for cash, can only be used towards FAPPO sponsored events and must be used by April 30, 2009 (no exceptions). Maximum amount that a FAPPO member can earn cumulative is $450.00 and Officers are not eligible for FAPPO Bucks. You can pass your FAPPO Bucks on to another FAPPO member, and the same rules will apply. First come, first serve on names, agencies or vendors submitted to the Executive Director. This will be tracked by email dates and times. The email address for the Executive Director is: execdirector@fappo.org. Good Luck! Watch for additional opportunities in future newsletters to earn FAPPO Bucks.

CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS - 2009 ANNUAL CONFERENCE "STRATEGIZE TO OVERCOME DEFICIENCIES"

FAPPO is accepting proposals for presentations for the 2009 Annual Conference to be delivered to the membership during its 42nd Annual Conference April 5th through April 8th. The deadline to submit proposals is January 9, 2009.

Topics for presentation should motivate, educate and challenge our members to "Strategize to Overcome Deficiencies" in the current economy and optimize our professions involvement in the workplace. Every presenter is invited to share experience, expertise, knowledge, and transferable capabilities with colleagues to offer solutions for future success.

Topics requested based on last year's conference surveys:

Ethics	Negotiation Strategies
Dispute Resolution	Performance Specifications
CCNA	Life Cycle Costing
After Award tasks, including debriefing	Owner Direct Purchases
Leadership	Internet Subjects
Managing A & E Firms	Two Step Solicitation Process

Presentations should have high interest, quality content and delivery design. Length of presentations will be determined by the scheduling requirements. The conference will provide members with a dual track format due to its success last year.

Presenters will be required to submit their final presentations in PowerPoint format to the Program Director no later than March 13, 2009. This deadline is crucial to ensure proper format of material and FAPPO will upload the presentations on-line for members to download materials prior to the conference.

Proposal/Application Guidelines:

- Complete application
- Summary of presentation is limited to one paragraph of up to 150 words
- Objectives must be written in a measurable format
- Biographical information must be limited to 150 words
- Proposal/Application shall be submitted via email, fax, or mail

Benefits of Presenting:

- FREE Registration to the 42nd Annual Conference

“PROCUREMENT’S STRATEGIC EFFORTS FOR PRODUCING SAVINGS IN DEFICIENT TIMES” ESSAY CONTEST

FAPPO is proud to sponsor the 1ST Annual Essay Contest. Regular FAPPO members are eligible to participate in the contest. (Officers are not eligible).

Individuals who are interested in participating in this contest must submit a 1000-word essay that focuses on their personal views and Agency efforts in producing saving or deferring costs to their Agency. Five (5) typed double-spaced copies of the essay plus a disk copy in MS Word or WordPerfect (document protected) are required. The essay must have the author's name, address, phone number, and a signed statement giving FAPPO the right to publish the essay in FAPPO literature and on the website. The signed statement must appear on the essay's cover page.

Essay entries must be postmarked on or before February 20, 2009 and sent to Denise Schneider, FAPPO President, c/o the Greater Orlando Aviation Authority, 8652 Casa Verde Rd. Bldg 811, Orlando Florida 32827. Questions should be emailed to Denise Schneider at: dschneider@goaa.org

The current FAPPO Officers will judge the essays based on originality, message/content focus, clarity and grammar.

The winner and runners-up of the essay contest will be announced at the 42nd Annual FAPPO Conference, April 5th through April 8th, 2009 in Orlando, FL and via mail. The winning author will receive $300 FAPPO BUCKS to attend the 42nd Annual Conference, which may be used for Registration or towards the hotel stay at the Peabody. The winning essay will be published in the FAPPO newsletter and reproduced on the FAPPO web site.
