2019 FAPPO “STRIVING FOR EXCELLENCE” CONTEST

INTRODUCTION:

FAPPO’s mission is to promote the achievement of excellence in public procurement and the theme of this year’s contest. Excellence is the key to providing the levels of service that our departmental customers, administration, and other key stakeholders expect; and rightly so. Just understanding our position expectations is not enough. Procurement professionals must branch out and achieve success over and above the expected level of expectations to advance as a procurement professional. We need to align the strategies with the objectives of our respective organizations; continually improving our processes and practices; and work towards supply management in a holistic approach that considers multiple factors including reduced costs, improved quality, best value, mitigated risks, and return on investment.

The 2019 Striving for Excellence Contest provides entrants with the freedom to use their imagination and creativity to determine the message and the method by which they express how procurement professionals ‘Strive for Excellence’. Entries may be submitted in traditional essay format, a poem, an audio or video recording, a photo collage, an illustrated story book, or other mediums for conveying the message.
