Happy New Year to all of our members! Your Board met on January 9th and we have completed almost all of our tasks to make sure that you have a great Conference and Trade Show. The conference schedule is posted in this newsletter and on the FAPPO website and Marian Pace has done an outstanding job setting up informative classes for you to choose from. This year you can also attend a State of Florida Class (at an additional charge) and also take advantage of the networking, special event, banquet and trade show at the same time.

It’s not too late to submit an essay and win $300 FAPPO “bucks” which would pay for your conference registration. See the website for details. You can also submit potential vendors to our Executive Director and if they haven’t exhibited in the last two years and they sign up for this year’s tradeshow, you would also be eligible for $100 FAPPO “bucks”. The Executive Director’s email is: execdirector@fappo.org. You need to use your FAPPO “bucks” by May 31st of this year. An updated list of FAPPO “bucks” awardees is also listed in this newsletter.

The deadline to take advantage of the Peabody Hotel special rates for the conference is March 16th. The rooms are on a first come, first serve basis so register as soon as you can to take advantage of the special rate. For the first time, you can utilize a credit card to pay for the room right from the webpage.

The theme for the Special Event and the Trade Show is Cinco de Mayo and dress for the entire conference will be business casual. We have some special entertainment planned for you on Sunday evening, and at the Banquet on Tuesday evening, we will also be enjoying Casino Night with some special door prizes and entertainment as well. This promises to be a great conference, and we hope that you can join us!

Congratulations to Cheryl Shanaberger who was appointed to the AEP committee and to Cheri Alexander who was appointed to the NCPPC committee. They will both be great representatives from FAPPO.

See you in Orlando for the Conference!

Denise
From your Vice-President

FAPPO Board is making every attempt to respond to our Member’s requests and suggestions! Several proposed enhancements are being researched and the target implementation timeline is 2009/2010. The enhancements are also in support and in response to FAPPO’s Strategic Plan. Following is a couple of the proposed enhancements:

- Web Meetings
  Board Meetings – At least two (2) board meetings will be held via web meetings. Researching the possibility of conducting on-site meetings while allowing board/committee members unable to attend to participate through the web meeting.

  Researching the possibility of LIVE STREAMING through the software to allow members to attend events through the web.

- A CPPB Review Class will be scheduled at the 43rd Annual Conference for May 1 through May 2, 2010. CPPB testing is scheduled for May 3, 2010 through May 8, 2010! Take the review, test and come to the conference to CELEBRATE!

The planning of the 2010 43rd Annual Conference is well underway. The conference information is included in this newsletter for preparing your budgets.

Regards,
Marian H. Pace, CPPO, CPPB

Silent Auction at the 42nd Annual Conference

A Silent Auction will be held at the 42nd Annual Conference. Those members interested in donating an item for auction will need to submit the following information to the Vice President no later than March 6, 2009:

- Name of person or organization making donation
- Description of the donation
- Value of the donation

In addition to the items being donated, several pieces of computer equipment will be offered by FAPPO at the silent auction. These items include a laptop computer and printers.

In December 2008, FAPPO launched a group site on the social network Facebook. The group site will serve not only as a mechanism to introduce FAPPO to young people who may be interested in the field of public procurement, but also to allow members of FAPPO to network electronically with their peers. As an added bonus, the group site can be updated with information on events such as the upcoming 42nd Annual Conference; it provides capabilities to upload photos and allows for posting of discussion topics among members.

For those of you who are unfamiliar with Facebook, there is no cost involved with joining the site. It is as simple as creating a user name and password and updating your profile with as much (or as little) information as you feel comfortable with. You can upload a profile picture as well, but it is not required. Once your profile is created, just type in FAPPO in the search field and you will be directed to the FAPPO group site. Once on the group site, you can click the link to join the group.

I encourage you to take the opportunity to join the FAPPO group within Facebook!

General Description:
The work of public procurement is no longer a clerical function performed independently by various people throughout different agencies or departments within a government entity. This class provides an overview of the ever-changing profession by identifying fundamental concepts that will affect procurement in the public sector.

Intended Audience:
This course is intended for individuals interested in an overview of procurement functions for the purpose of understanding the basic elements that underlie all areas of public procurement. Any government employee who has delegated authority to purchase good and services on behalf of the government should take advantage of this class. Discussion and content is relevant for those outside the profession, who are impacted by the public procurement environment.

Prerequisites:
There are no prerequisites for this class. Successful participants will either be new to the profession or have less than one year of experience and anyone employed in various positions within the government.

Times: 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Daily

Contact hours: 24 hours
UPPCC* Re-Certification points: 3
CEU Units: 2.25

General Description:
This course is uniquely designed to prepare procurement professionals to use the RFP process to its maximum potential. The class agenda will identify the process, offer a key understanding of the elements of the proposal and ascertain ways in which the document can be used to its full capability. Pitfalls and success stories will make the class relevant and applicable when planning to incorporate this type of solicitation into the government process.

Intended Audience:
Designed for procurement professionals that are entrenched in the competitive process this in-depth study of RFPs, from development through evaluation, will be enlightening. Major topics to be covered include managing the process, evaluating submissions, negotiations and an overview of the subsequent contract. Those interested in gaining a thorough understanding of the process and its implications for successful public procurement should be encouraged to attend. Team leaders, committee members, contract administrators and procurement managers and any other procurement professional interested in achieving “best value” during this acquisition process should register.

Prerequisites:
There are no prerequisites for this class. Successful participants will either be new to the profession or have less than one year of experience and anyone employed in various positions within the government.

Course Title: SOURCING IN THE PUBLIC SECTOR
Dates: 3-DAYS – MARCH 4-6, 2009
Times: 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Daily
Contact hours: 24 hours
UPPCC* Re-Certification points: 3
CEU Units: 2.25

General Description:
This course provides the participant with a comprehensive overview of the sourcing process within the public sector. Essential elements, including pre-sourcing planning, needs assessment, specifications, scope of work, deliverables, procurement strategies, value analysis, and internal control processes are explored. Determining the appropriate sourcing method, preparing the relevant sourcing invitation document, managing the acquisition process, evaluation of response submissions, and contract awards will also be explored. In addition, trends and technology developments and their effect of processes will be discussed.

Intended Audience:
Sourcing, by government organizations is a different and complex process, filled with rules, regulations, procedures, court decisions, conflict of interest prohibitions, and issues that can complicate and confound the lives of government officials charged with procurement responsibilities. This course is intended for those who want to learn how to navigate the process and increase their understanding of the critical issues that frame the concept of public sector sourcing and discusses future sourcing challenges. Procurement practitioners at all levels aspiring to public procurement professional certification, senior agency managers, suppliers, and internal customers who wish to understand their role in the public sector acquisition process are encouraged to attend.

Prerequisites:
Though no prerequisites are stipulated for this class, successful participants should have one to two years of public procurement experience prior to enrolling. Others may find completion of the NIGP Introduction to Public Procurement class, and the NIGP Planning, Scheduling and Requirements Analysis class to be of benefit.

Course Title: PLANNING, SCHEDULING & REQUIREMENTS ANALYSIS
Dates: 3-DAYS – MARCH 23-25, 2009
Times: 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Daily

Contact hours: 24 hours
UPPCC* Re-Certification points: 3
CEU Units: 2.25

General Description:
This course will cover strategic planning within an organization and the importance of its relationship to procurement planning. Planning models will be discussed as will public sector budgeting. Developing key partnerships within the organization in requirements determination will be explored, as this will lead to the development of proper specifications. Pricing strategies employed in the public sector such as cost analysis and life cycle costing will also be covered.

Intended Audience:
This introduction to the strategic planning/procurement planning process will be valuable to all public procurement professionals who are interested in developing strategic working relationships with end users in their organizations. This course will be beneficial to every public procurement professional attempting to advance in the field and develop their knowledge, skills and abilities relative to procurement’s strategic position within an organization. In light of the broad nature of the text, many of the concepts may be of special interest to the practicing public administrator and public procurement professionals.

Prerequisites:
Though no prerequisites are stipulated for this class, successful participants should have at least one year of public procurement experience prior to enrollment. Those without applicable experience may find this class more beneficial after having taken the NIGP Introduction to Public Purchasing.

Course Title: CONTRACT ADMINISTRATION
Dates: 3-DAYS – MARCH 23-25, 2009
Times: 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Daily

Contact hours: 24 hours
UPPCC* Re-Certification points: 3
CEU Units: 2.25

General Description:
The class provides a framework for examining contract administration by focusing on essential elements of the discipline. It also provides the participant with a focused look at key considerations related to important contract terms and conditions that must be enforced during contract administration. The intent is for the student to develop a strong understanding of the complexities of contract administration and recognize the importance of planning, monitoring, and proactive insight into and oversight of contract performance. This class provides a comprehensive overview of the contract administration process within the public sector along with illustrations of the various methods available. Determining the appropriate contract administration method, preparing a relevant plan, participating in the process, evaluating the success of the contract and evaluation procedures will all be addressed.

Intended Audience:
This class is designed for contract managers at every level; contract managers with significant experience will find the material to be useful, as it examines contract administration in the context of 21st century contract challenges. Material addresses contracting from a global perspective, i.e. unique statues and/or regulations may be mentioned; however the material transcends state or national level interest by offering a look at the process and best practices that have application regardless of unique laws and regulations that may govern.

Prerequisites:
Though no prerequisites are stipulated for this class, successful participants should have one to two years of public procurement experience prior to enrolling. Others may find completion of the NIGP Introduction to Public Procurement class, and the NIGP Planning, Scheduling and Requirements Analysis class to be of benefit.

Course Title: INTRODUCTION TO PUBLIC PROCUREMENT
Dates: 3-DAYS – MAY 20-22, 2009
Times: 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Daily

Contact hours: 24 hours
UPPCC* Re-Certification points: 3
CEU Units: 2.25

General Description:
The work of public procurement is no longer a clerical function performed independently by various people throughout different agencies or departments within a government entity. This class provides an overview of the ever-changing profession by identifying fundamental concepts that will affect procurement in the public sector.

Intended Audience:
This course is intended for individuals interested in an overview of procurement functions for the purpose of understanding the basic elements that underlie all areas of public procurement. Any government employee who has delegated authority to purchase goods and services on behalf of the government should take advantage of this class. Discussion and content is relevant for those outside the profession, who are impacted by the public procurement environment.

Prerequisites:
There are no prerequisites for this class. Successful participants will either be new to the profession or have less than one year of experience and anyone employed in various positions within the government.

EARN YOUR WAY TO FAPPO EVENTS

Starting on July 15, 2008, FAPPO members can “earn” their way to a FAPPO sponsored event. This includes the FAPPO Conference and Trade Show in April 2009, as well as any FAPPO sponsored class!! This is how it works:

1. Send an email to the Executive Director to sign up a new member or agency. Include the agency or member name, email and phone number. The Executive Director will contact that agency or member and you will receive TWENTY FAPPO Bucks for each new member that joins and pays dues. Agency or member must be new to FAPPO and can not have belonged within the past two years. Maximum amount to be earned is $300.00. (You cannot sign up anyone from your own agency, but we certainly encourage all of you to belong).

2. Send an email to the Executive Director to sign up a Vendor for the 2009 Conference and Trade Show to be held on April 8, 2009 at the Orange County Convention Center. Include the Vendor name, contact name, telephone number, mailing address, fax number and email address. The Executive Director will contact the Vendor and if the Vendor signs up and pays to participate in the 2009 Trade Show, you will receive ONE HUNDRED FAPPO Bucks. (Vendor cannot have participated in a FAPPO Trade Show within the past two years). Maximum amount that can be earned is $300.00 and you can use your FAPPO Bucks for a FAPPO sponsored event, or, you can trade in your Bucks for Ducks, and use towards your stay at the Peabody Hotel for the 2009 Conference and Trade Show.

3. Serve as a Committee Chairperson—FIFTY FAPPO Bucks, serve on the Committee—TWENTY-FIVE FAPPO Bucks.

To be eligible you must have paid your dues for 2008/2009 by the posted deadline. FAPPO Bucks are not redeemable for cash, can only be used towards FAPPO sponsored events and must be used by April 30, 2009 (no exceptions). Maximum amount that a FAPPO member can earn cumulative is $450.00 and Officers are not eligible for FAPPO Bucks. You can pass your FAPPO Bucks on to another FAPPO member, and the same rules will apply. First come, first serve on names, agencies or vendors submitted to the Executive Director. This will be tracked by email dates and times. The email address for the Executive Director is: execdirector@fappo.org. Good Luck! Watch for additional opportunities in future newsletters to earn FAPPO Bucks.

Are you interested in serving on a committee? Contact an Officer or Committee Member for information.
FAPPO is proud to sponsor the 1st Annual Essay Contest. Regular FAPPO members are eligible to participate in the contest. (Officers are not eligible).

Individuals who are interested in participating in this contest must submit a 1000-word essay that focuses on their personal views and Agency efforts in producing saving or deferring costs to their Agency. Five (5) typed double-spaced copies of the essay plus a disk copy in MS Word or WordPerfect (document protected) are required. The essay must have the author's name, address, phone number, and a signed statement giving FAPPO the right to publish the essay in FAPPO literature and on the website. The signed statement must appear on the essay's cover page.

Essay entries must be postmarked on or before February 20, 2009 and sent to Denise Schneider, FAPPO President, c/o the Greater Orlando Aviation Authority, 8652 Casa Verde Rd. Bldg 811, Orlando Florida 32827. Questions should be emailed to Denise Schneider at: dschneider@goaa.org

The current FAPPO Officers will judge the essays based on originality, message/content focus, clarity and grammar.

The winner and runners-up of the essay contest will be announced at the 42nd Annual FAPPO Conference, April 5th through April 8th, 2009 in Orlando, FL and via mail. The winning author will receive $300 FAPPO BUCKS to attend the 42nd Annual Conference, which may be used for Registration or towards the hotel stay at the Peabody. The winning essay will be published in the FAPPO newsletter and reproduced on the FAPPO web site.
